SCAEOP Names New President

Columbia, SC, March 3, 2018: The South Carolina Association of Educational Office Professionals (SCAEOP) has named Christie Knight its 36th President. The SCAEOP held its annual conference in Myrtle Beach, SC March 1—4 where the president and newly elected and appointed board members were installed. Mrs. Knight is currently employed as Bookkeeper and Administrative Assistant to the Principal at Newberry Elementary in Newberry County. She has been employed with The School District of Newberry for over 6 years, and has been an administrative professional for over 28 years.

The SCAEOP is a proud association that represents the educational office professionals across the state. They provide professional development, networking and scholarship opportunities to their members. Additionally, they provide several student scholarships and engage in community service initiatives across the state. They are also affiliated with the National Association of Educational Office Professionals (NAEOP), the only organization that offers a national certification specifically for educational office professionals.

If you are interested in knowing more about the SCAEOP, please visit their website at www.scaeop.org. They can also be found on Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook and Pinterest. The Public Relations point of contact is Tammy Wilson – twilson@newberry.k12.sc.us
